Skip to content Bangor is located in a breathtaking landscape with panoramic views. The location is probably one of the most beautiful university settings in the whole of the UK – situated between the Snowdonia Mountains and the Menai Strait. Campus Map View a map of our Bangor University campus. Travel directions We're far easier to get to than you might think – there are good road links to Bangor along the north Wales coast from the M56 and M6. There are direct trains from London, Manchester, Crewe and Cardiff. There are also frequent ferries from nearby Holyhead to Ireland. Estimated journey times are: Liverpool to Bangor by car – 1.5 hours Manchester to Bangor by car – 2 hours Birmingham to Bangor by car – 3 hours London to Bangor by train – 3 hours By road Our interactive location map (provided by Google map) provides you with directions to Bangor. Postcode LL57 2DG will bring you to the main University Building, whereas LL57 2UW takes you to the centre of Bangor, close to the Deiniol Building (building 47 on our map) By train or bus See the National Rail website & Traveline Cymru for public transport information. Bangor is around two hours from Manchester by train, and the journey from London Euston to Bangor takes around three hours. By ferry From Ireland, you can cross on the ferry to Holyhead which is half an hour away from Bangor. You can see a list of supported browsers in our Help Center. Help Center Nestled on 43 acres of land tucked between Union Street and Hammond Street across from the Bangor International Airport, its facilities include state-of-the-art dental health and veterinary clinics, both of which provide services to the surrounding community. In addition, the campus offers classrooms and labs designed to meet the needs of students, a comfortable and inviting student lounge used as a collaborating and gathering space, and a full fitness center with regular group classes. UMA Bangor offers over 40 degree programs and a full range of student services, including one-on-one tutoring, math and writing labs, and friendly advisors. UMA Bangor's Nottage Library provides a robust amount of resources including access to shared databases all over the state, in addition to its friendly on-hand staff and quiet, comfortable study spaces. UMA's Bangor campus has an active Student Life office and Student Government Association that engages students and offers many opportunities for leadership both in and outside of the classroom. In addition, there are numerous student groups on campus who host a wide array of events throughout the year including student appreciation events, faculty panels, multicultural and gender equality talks, musical performances, fundraising efforts, and much more!
